This years foreign exchange student, Seyma Halkali was a 16 year old senior from Turkey. She chose the United States because she wanted to improve her English and she enjoyed Amphi because it was a "regular American school." Seyma took a full schedule of senior classes like: Algebra 2, physical science, tennis, student government, American Literature, and American Government. Seyma was involved with many of Amphi's clubs like: student council, culture club, D.E.C.A., and the ski club. Seyma's future plans include going back to Turkey to finish her last year of school, then going on to a university to study economics or administration.

T.W.I.R.P. WEEK

Every year Amphi has its traditional T.W.I.R.P. week sponsored by the Junior Class. T.W.I.R.P., in this case, is an anacronym for; The Woman is Required to Pay. All the girls have opportunities to ask out their favorite guy. Monday was orientation for girls. Tuesday, Jan. 31st-Twirp Follies, which included such acts as The Untouchables, 1st place, Rap Patrol, 2nd place, and TLT which came in 3rd place. Wednesday, Feb. 1st we had nothing scheduled, but it gave the girls a chance to take that fab guy out to lunch. Thursday, Feb. 2- Cartoons and Twirp Follies at night, and on Friday Feb. 2nd, the week ended with a sock hop in the little gym.

BAND

This year the band performed very well, it performed at three of the main universities in Arizona, which included: NAU, U of A, and ASU. The Band received two excellent ratings, and three superior ratings. Some of the band members participated in Regional and All-State band which was in Flagstaff this year. Not everybody could participate in this event, which is really dissapointing because everybody in the band has very good musical experience. We'd like to congratulate the band on an excellent year.

PRESIDENTIAL CLASSROOM

A new program has come to Amphi. It is the Presidential Classroom. Although this program has been running throughout the country for years, this was a first time for Amphi. Three seniors, Jill Goldfarb, David Harden, and Paula McChesney represented Amphi in Washington D.C. this year. They travelled to the Capitol City for one week of intense seminars, lectures, tours, and visits. Some of the highlights of the trip included meeting one of Arizona's Senators, visiting the Smithsonian Institute, going to the Kennedy Center, and attending seminars given by the tops of executive, legislative, and judicial branches, plus business and labor groups. The students are given plenty of opportunity to ask questions concerning all subjects. Being such an educational opportunity for anyone interested in how our government works, Presidential Classroom should continue as a tradition for Amphi.

A PAGE'S (HALF) PAGE

The first semester of my junior year took place on "The Hill." Going to school and work in Washington D.C. as a United States House of Representative Page was no ordinary semester by any means. One great thrill of this experience was watching the House proceedings. Each day, the Speaker of the House, Thomas P. O'Neill (also known as Topsy), sauntered into the chamber to open the days session.

But, Pages aren't the only people to see the House in action. Anyone can observe the session while seated in the House gallery with a tour group. One day, I recognized Phil Donahue and Lt. Robert Goodman seated in the gallery, but I doubt they recognized me.

My only regret, which will inevitably disappear, is walking through the Capitol and on to the House Floor became routine, like riding the bus to school.

YEARBOOK

This year's "Panther Trials" yearbook club consisted of sixteen students, of whom five were previous members from last year. Many of our fund raising activities were: Selling bricks for the wall in the yearbook, selling pictures for I.C.C. Daze, and selling Pepsi and Team for the Veterans Day Parade. The yearbook takes many months of hard work; one of the hardest jobs we had to perform was putting all of the underclassmen pictures in alphabetical order, under the right class, and most importantly spelling the name correctly, (but we were entitled to a few mistakes)!!! Anyways thanks to Wendy Martell (our yearbook Editor in Chief) we somehow pulled through the year. If this had not have been a great year at Amphi; this yearbook wouldn't have been as great as it is, and we not only thank Mr. Shorrock our Advisor, but also the entire staff, and you the students of Amphitheater High School for making this year a good one!!

SCHOLASTIC BOWL

The winner of the second annual Scholastic Bowl was the team coached by Mrs. Moore. The competition consisted of eight outstanding teams formed by the students and their coaches. In order to prepare themselves for the competition, students did various things like working out practice questions and holding practice competitions between teams. The Scholastic Bowl was first suggested last year by the county Superintendent. This year the main coordinator of the Scholastic Bowl was Mrs. Dutz.

ASTRONOMY

This year a newly formed club, the Astronomy Club, has been presented to Amphi. Don Simpson, the Advisor, and his nine new members compose the club. The President is Leslie Alpert and the Vice President is Tom Starling. Who being new himself says, "This year has started out really well for my first year."

The club has raised money by selling bagels. The members have gone on a field trip to the Flandrau Planetarium, located at the University of Arizona, to learn new things. Although they have not discovered any new planets, the club is still very interested in the universe surrounding us.

FFA

Future Farmers of America is a non-profit organization set up to teach today's young about agriculture in America. The FFA doesn't only teach about cows, hay and tractors, but it also teaches about forestry, conservation, surveying and other agricultural related occupations. The FFA program here at Amphi is one of the best programs in the state. Russ Federico, the president of our chapter, has done much to improve the organizational set up of our program, this year. This year the agriculture classes and the FFA chapter have done much for the community. They've held educational petting zoo's at local elementary schools. They have also gone on can collections for charity organizations. We are proud of what the FFA has done for our community. They deserve a well earned thanks.

DESERT GAZETTE

The monthly newspaper publication, The Desert Gazette, staffed by the advanced journalism class, strove to meet many goals, in the 1983-84. Among these goals were, to stimulate thought while posing student opinions, provide an open forum, for comment, enlighten through the news that sought the truth, entertain and inform with decisive features, supply the latest stats and facts on Amphi's superior athletic programs, and finally, provide all angles to many indepth topics. Overall, the Desert Gazette Staff aimed their efforts toward the George H. Gallup award, given to the nation's top 35 high school newspapers. Editor-in-chief, Jeff Caley, and his staff of six section editors were proud to have a staff of writers that excelled in many ways. Advisor, Jim Herman kept the staff on its toes, endlessly quoting, journalistic ethics and policies. Of his staff he says, "Caring, concerned, involved journalists is what the journalism department looks for."

VARSITY FOOTBALL

What comes to mind when one thinks of Amphi's football team? CLASS. It's the kind seen in several ways: the team's attitude when winning or losing, the cheering fans backing their team, and everyone else who comes in contact with them.

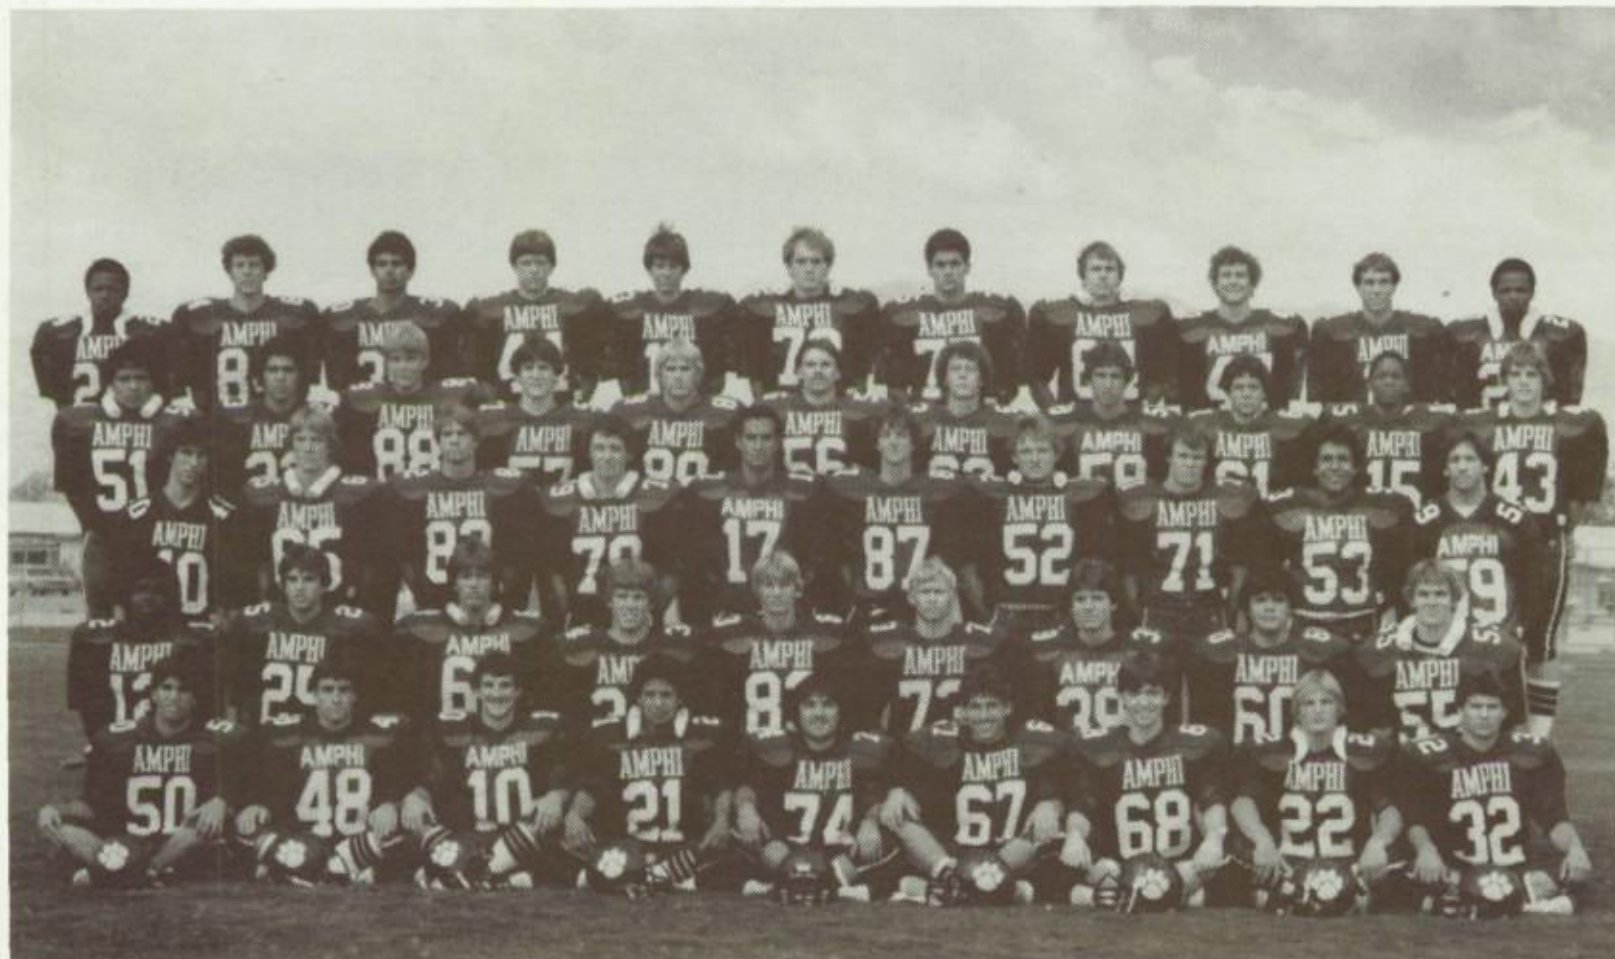

The team held on to their CLASS even when they went through hard times and low morale and when the five players were suspended from the team. They stuck together and never gave up. Overcoming a tough beginning, the team rallied and beat Buena 22-21 for the first win of the season. Showing tough determination, the final overall record for the year was 8-3, with a league record of 5-1. The team was the North League Champions. Another winning season brought the overall record of Amphi's football team in the past 8 years to 78 wins, 14 losses, and 1 tie.

EPITAPH

One night I had a dream
That seemed quite befitting of my life.
I was a chipmunk scampering thru the woods,
In and among the trees and flowers,
Enjoying life.
As I chewed on a juicy leaf of clover,
An intruding darkness prevailed over my space.
I ran and ran, trying to evade it,
But it persisted, wings outstretched,
Eyes filled with the anticipation of blood.
I headed for my home in a nearby tree.
But off to the left was my friend's tree.
It was closer, but did I dare intrude?
I stopped to consider the options.
I looked behind me and saw him
Gliding closer, flexing his talons.
Was that a laugh I heard,
Or just the wind
Rustling in the trees?

— T.J.

FUTURE

I'm closing the door on the past.
I'm trying to sort out the good, the bad, the happy, the sad.
Trying to preserve the golden memories of childhood.
Trying to leave behind the past hurts and fears
Where does one end and the other begin?
This is where my task begins.
Has the crowd changed and left me behind? or I them?
Why do I feel like I'm standing still, standing alone, everyone else is moving so fast.
I see many faces, some glad, some scared, some confused, faces of people who don't know themselves.
Do I know myself? NO!
How do I go about it? put the past behind and look to the future;
optimistically.
Why are my eyes wet?
Is it what I have lost, or what I have gained?
I see new faces, smiling and happy, I hear laughter and feel cold winds.
But not just yet.
What stands between me and the happiness I can see, can feel, can hear, and yet cannot hold in my hand, though it belongs to me?
Is it my old friend/foe, the past? I think it is so I work harder at my task and struggle to close the door ...

— J.R.P.

Look at someone and what do you see?
A rock, dirty and shapeless,
Hidden and smothered by the dirt of a ruthless world.
It's ugly you say, just like all the rest.
So you turn and walk away.
A little more dirt has just been added.

But suppose, just suppose
You observed the rock a little closer.
For it is unique in it's own way.
With a little patience and tender care
You can clean the dirt away.
It begins to sparkle -
Just a little at first.
But as you continue,
It shines with a brilliance beyond words.
Perhaps now you have discovered
That there is a diamond within us all.

— K.M.

POEMS

UNCONDITIONAL LOVE

Your icy steel hands
Clutch at my heart
Squeezing out the love
You so eagerly seek.

Oh yes, there is pleasure in loving.
But can it possibly be worth
All the pain and suffering
You've put me through?

Any sensible person
Would see the uselessness
Of striving to regain
What we've lost,

But perhaps I am the sensible one.
For I see it not as being lost,
But simply buried among the debris
Of my selfish emotions.

Perhaps when I've cleared it away
I'll be able to see you as you are
And offer to you my unconditional love.
Expecting nothing in return.

—K.M.

GOLF

This season the golf team was highlighted by a 12-2 record and their 2nd place position in divisionals. The outstanding players for this year were: Seniors- Francisco Glenn and Jeff Caley; Junior- Lee Coate, and Sophomore- Mark Merder. Mr. DePascal stated, "The team was disappointed because they finished 11th out of 16 teams in the state; we had hoped to have done much better."

This year's cross country team didn't stand all that well in the league, but they demonstrated true Amphi Sportsmanship. Mr. Nido said that at the beginning of the season, the runners ran individually, but throughout the course of the season they bonded together, and ran together in training and also in the meets. David Fleishman was an asset to Amphi's Cross Country team as well as Tom Ebcoff and Robert Weisner. Fleishman placed 8th in divisionals and 50th overall in state. The girls that attended state were seniors; Diane Hughes, Melanie Robles, and Carlotta Edwards; juniors: Betsy Berg, Ellen Gore and Andrea Broad; and sophomore Amber Settle. The team had set a goal to finish in the top five but were just shy of their mark by placing 6th.

SWIMMING AND DIVING

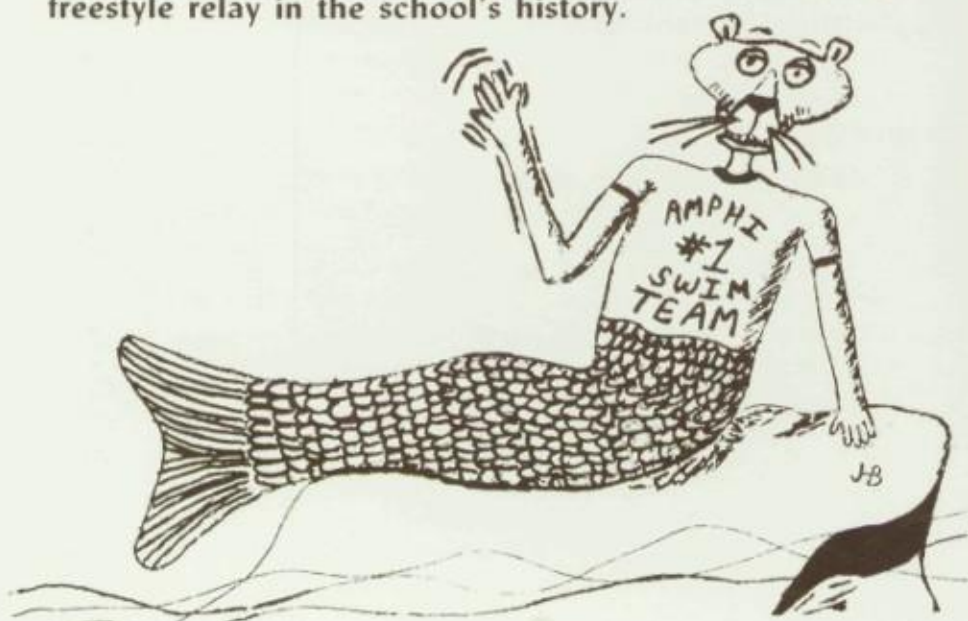

Above: Betsy Leader takes a big breath for the winning stroke. Above right: Amphi's swimmers warming up before a meet, and of course the win!

The 1983-84 Boys and Girls Swimming and Diving teams experienced the finest seasons in the school's history. Both teams finished their dual meet season with perfect 11-0 records and captured both the boys and girls team championships on the Southern Division. It was the first title for the girls while the boys added their fourth consecutive championship. The boys team finished second in the State Championships behind powerhouse Brophy Prep of Phoenix, while the girls placed fourth. Both placings were the highest in the teams brief five-year history. Co-captains Scott Menke and Kevin Hammel, along with Ed Martignetti, led the boys team throughout the year. Mencke earned All-American consideration honors in the 100 yd. freestyle race all year long. Hammel placed first in the Southern Division in the diving and was a finalist at the State championships. Marnie Olton and Cathy Heacox were the co-captains of the girls' team who finished with their first unbeaten season ever. Heacox was a state finalist in the 200 yd. freestyle and she was teamed up with Mary Jontz, Trish Ahern, and Debbie Lynch to form the fastest 400 yd. freestyle relay in the school's history.

VARSITY VOLLEYBALL

This years varsity volleyball team was coached by U.A. student, Corey Morshita. The team's only returning players were Izzy Santa Cruz- team captain, and Debbie Symons- most valuable player. After watching one game a referee stated that Amphi's volleyball team was one of the most skilled and potential teams. The team however held a league record of 1-5 due to their lack of experience and team coherence. The J.V. team coached by Jodie Moore, and the Freshman team was coached by Mrs. Proll, a new teacher here at Amphi. The teams have worked hard and learned much throughout the season.

VARSITY BASKETBALL

1983-84 Varsity Basketball team, coached by Steve Kanner, had a slow start. The team wasn't able to play consistently this season. Placing 6th in the Christmas tournament and beating Sunnyside twice were some highlights of the season. The team had good athletes and depth, but due to the loss of last year's senior starters, they were inexperienced. The JV coach, Dan Lopez, and Freshman coach, Mark Pauley, were impressed with their teams and look forward to more successful years.

According to Day, "the team responded well to having a new coach and made an honest effort to pull together and play as a team." Outstanding players of the team were: Linda Albrecht, batting .366 and Rita Jabczynski, batting .343. Denise Munoz, Gina Everill, Cheryl Greene and Lisa Price played well on defense.

The 1982-83 gymnastics team tied for 1st in divisionals and captured a 4th place in state. Lise Bovre was the outstanding gymnast at divisionals, winning the Barry Hendricks Award. With six seniors graduating in 1983, this year's team is young. The goal of the team has always been the same- to hit the best routines at the right time. The coaches are Marie Daugherty and Holly Smith. A new coach, Brian Gavre is a great asset to the team adding new technique and skill which helps to bring the best out of each gymnast.

This year the team had only three returning seniors: Cheryl Greene, Brenna Kelley, and Tina Bonjour, who were the leaders of the nine players. They were one of the tallest teams in town. They had a strong defense and were very competitive.

BOYS TRACK

Last year's boys Varsity track team earned the title of Southern Division Team Champions and ranked 10th in the state. This year Coach Nido hopes that the team will finish in the top 3 in the state and win the Southern Division Relays. This year Amphi has the best coaching staff in the state of Ariona. The staff includes: Mr. Nido, Mr. Klee, Mr. McClung, and Mr. Putchett. According to Nido, this year's strongest players will be: Bernie Wharton, Tom Camp, Marion Bates, and David Watson for sprints; Tony Dougherty, Scott Shorman, Carl Nelson, and Mark Mose for weights; and Phil Adams, Mark Mose, and Tony Berlin for jumps. Coach Nido believes Buena, Cholla and Sunnyside will be the toughest competition.

EVERYBODY'S . . .

The weekdays always drag on, but with the weekends to look forward to, the days seem a little easier. During the week Amphi students are loaded with homework. Compiling to the lists of things to do on the weekdays are part time jobs which many students have acquired. On this page we take a quick glance of our not-so-hard-working students. At Amphi we work to live, and we're all working for the weekends. P.S. I don't know Barry, it looks a little small!

RETIRING TEACHERS

BOB HIATT

CALVIN BROWN

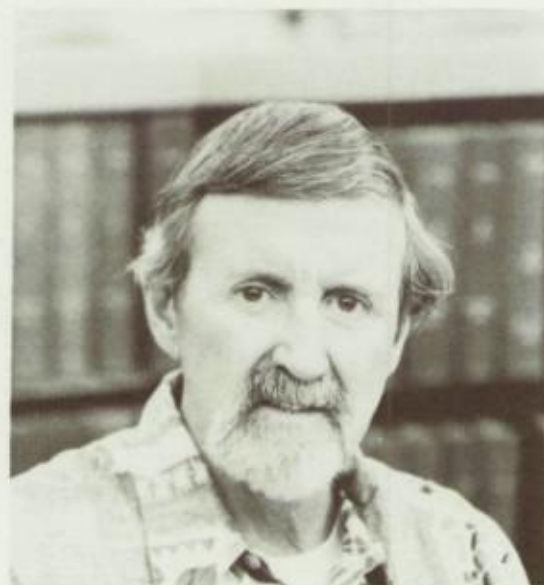

MARIE BOYD

RETIRING TEACHERS in '84- The six retiring teachers will leave Amphitheater, but their spirit will remain. Their combined teaching experience of 186 years will not be replaced easily. Their service and dedication will be greatly missed. The teachers have some wonderful memories of their years here at Amphitheater. Mr. Sterrett recalls the years during World War II when classes were held in Quonset huts at Prince Elementary. Many staff and faculty members throughout the district are proud to have had Mr. Sterrett as their English teacher. Calvin Brown is planning to try some new hobbies and travel. He recommends that new teachers concentrate on getting to know and enjoy their students. Marie Boyd, Librarian at Amphitheater High School for over 17 years, gives the following advice to the parents of today's teenagers: "Students have much more freedom today; but it is up to them to use this freedom constructively." Mr. Richard Murray, who has taught Spanish to Amphi students for over 35 years, hopes to do some traveling and writing. Buena Suerte! Robert Hiatt will be traveling and sailing as much as possible. "Compared to the Amphi of the 40's and 50's, today's curriculum is much more comprehensive." He believes that education opportunities have improved in quality and quantity with each decade. Mr. Malcolm Montgomery has served as a teacher of Math at Amphitheater High School for the past 23 years. Known by his friends as "Monty" he plans to help his son operate a farm/ranch in the Northwest. Although officially retiring December 23, 1983, Bob Hiatt, Cal Brown, Malcolm Montgomery and Allan Sterrett will remain full time through May of 1984. Richard Murray will teach two classes during the second semester and a part time teacher will be hired for Murray's other classes.

Traci,
Yash dear, this is gonna take awhile.
I guess I could start by saying thank you for being such a good friend. I'm sure you know how much your friendship means to me! You've listened to my bitching,
I guess that means you've heard it all. (HA! HA!)
Anyway, even though we've had our moments where we could have killed each other, we've also had moments like on Wednesday night "you are sick S-I-K in the head H-E-D and I'm gonna kill you dead B-E-D!" (HA! HA! HA!)
HAPPY HA! (Sorry I have to change pens.) year will be even better 'cause we'll be big Juniors and everything will be done by our class. I wish you were going to be in Play Production so that we could have a class together next year. But that's ok. We'll still be good friends. I refuse to get mushy here. You already know what you mean to me so, words are not needed for that expression. Keep working on your singing, someday you'll show your sister up! Have a great summer!

Take care of yourself!

Love Ya Lots,

Lynn

P.S. Keep in touch.

To Tracy,
You're a real sweet person & that I hope you stay in way. Please keep in, 488-4638
touch this summer.
Love, Laurie

So, are you to quitting Phanna,

Let me guess one reason "Ebert"!!! yuck!

I get chills up + down my spine
when I hear her name, or see her face!! Oh well

I hope ~~some~~ one sees this! Oh well
I wouldn't care anyway!

Shelly
Yours later,
Liz

Traci -

You are super and I'm sure we will see each other next year. You know, being scared every other day
is very enlightening for me.
Keeps me on my toes and I like. Thanks and I'll see you soon. Love, John '85
